

Shop Assistant required for Saturdays (plus one full week induction).

Job Description:

A Shop Assistant, or Salesperson, helps and sells products to customers in our shop on a Saturday. Their primary duties include arranging products on the displays, processing payments and keeping the shop clean.

There will be a three-day induction to help the successful applicant learn the job.

Applicants will have outstanding customer service and communication skills. Any prior knowledge of computers, cables, peripherals will be advantageous.

Must be reliable and responsible.

Saturday shift starts at 09:30 until 17:00.

A good telephone manner is essential.

Ability to find out information quickly using our various back office systems.

Job involves some cleaning duties at the beginning and end of the day.

We will require two references from previous employers or college.

Salary approx £390 pcm

If you are interested and would like to send us your CV and covering letter, please send an email to office@zencomputershop.com

